The Bellewstown Inn

The Bellewstown Inn, Bar – Restaurant – Steakhouse and Sunday Carvery. On the edge of Europe's oldest Racecourse (Probably the world's oldest!) Located in one of the most scenic and highest parts of Co. Meath.

The food served here is seasonal and locally sourced as much as possible. It is freshly prepared and cooked so that it looks and tastes superb when it is served to you, the customer.

Thank you for choosing to spend sometime with us. It is our intent to satisfy you in every possible way (The little ones aswell!) Knowing that to please you, means we're likely to have the pleasure of seeing you again.

*Proprietors,
Patrick & Paddy Cummins.*
